Curriculum

Addison uses a variety of curricula to meet the needs of her students. She tailors each student's curriculum to their individual learning style and interests. Some of the curricula she uses include:

- Brave Writer

- RightStart Math
- Science from Scratch
- History Unwrapped

Teaching Style

Addison's teaching style is based on the belief that all children can learn. She creates a positive and supportive learning environment where students feel comfortable taking risks and asking questions. She is patient and encouraging, and she works with each student at their own pace.

Activities

In addition to academic instruction, Addison also incorporates a variety of activities into her homeschooling program. These activities include:

- Art projects
- Music lessons
- Physical education
- Field trips

Benefits of Homeschooling

There are many benefits to homeschooling. Some of the benefits include:

- Flexibility: Homeschooling allows families to set their own schedule and pace of learning.
- Individualization: Homeschooling allows teachers to tailor each student's curriculum to their individual learning style and interests.

- Socialization: Homeschooling provides opportunities for students to socialize with other children in a variety of settings.
- Cost-effective: Homeschooling can be more cost-effective than private school or traditional public school.
