History

The Chihuahua Kennel Club Classics was first held in 1934. The event was founded by a group of Chihuahua breeders who wanted to create a showcase for the breed. The event has been held every year since its inception, except for a brief interruption during World War II.

Rules

The Chihuahua Kennel Club Classics is open to all Chihuahuas, regardless of their age, sex, or color. The event is divided into two divisions: championship and non-championship. Championship dogs must have earned a championship title from a recognized kennel club. Non-championship dogs are not required to have any titles.

The event includes a variety of competitions, including:

* **Conformation:** This competition judges dogs on their appearance and adherence to the Chihuahua breed standard. * **Obedience:** This competition judges dogs on their ability to follow commands. * **Agility:** This competition judges dogs on their ability to navigate a course of obstacles.

Judging Criteria

The Chihuahua Kennel Club Classics is judged by a panel of experienced Chihuahua breeders and judges. The judges evaluate dogs based on a variety of criteria, including:

* **Appearance:** Dogs are judged on their overall appearance, including their head, body, tail, and coat. * **Temperament:** Dogs are judged on their temperament and demeanor. * **Training:** Dogs are judged on their ability to follow commands and navigate obstacles.

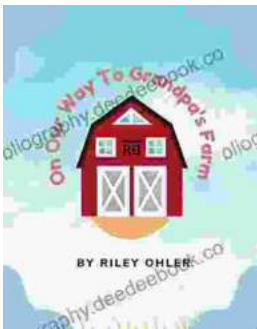

The Chihuahua Kennel Club Classics is a prestigious event that celebrates the Chihuahua breed. The event is a great opportunity for Chihuahua breeders and owners to showcase their dogs and compete for prizes.
