Eligibility Criteria

To be eligible for the Jet Program, you must meet the following requirements:

- Between the ages of 21 and 30 at the time of application
- A bachelor's degree from an accredited university
- Native English speaker or equivalent fluency
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to adapt to a new culture and work in a team environment

The Application Process

The Jet Program application process Typically opens in October or November and consists of three stages:

Stage 1: Online Application

- Submit your resume, cover letter, and supporting documents online
- Complete an online questionnaire assessing your motivation and qualifications

Stage 2: Semi-Finals

- If shortlisted, participate in a semi-final interview and provide a teaching demonstration
- Discuss your application and demonstrate your teaching skills

Stage 3: Interview and Placement

- Finalists are invited to an in-person interview with the Japanese Embassy or Consulate
- Interviews focus on your cultural awareness, motivation, and teaching philosophy
- Based on your interview, you will be placed in a local government board of education in Japan

Life as a Jet Participant

As a Jet Program participant, you will live and work in a local community in Japan, typically for a period of one to five years. Your responsibilities will include:

- Teaching English in elementary, junior high, or high schools
- Supporting English language activities and clubs
- Participating in cultural and community events

- Acting as an ambassador for your home country

In addition to your teaching responsibilities, you will receive support from the local board of education and the Jet Program community. You will have access to professional development opportunities, cultural workshops, and social events that will enhance your experience and personal growth.

The Impact of the Jet Program

The Jet Program has a profound impact on both the participants and the communities they serve. Participants gain invaluable cultural knowledge, develop global perspectives, and forge lasting connections with Japan. At the same time, they share their language and culture, contributing to mutual understanding and fostering goodwill between nations.

The program has also made a significant contribution to education in Japan. Jet participants bring fresh ideas and innovative teaching methods to Japanese classrooms, inspiring students and promoting language learning. Their presence in local communities helps to break down cultural barriers and create a more inclusive society.

Join the Jet Program and Make a Difference

If you are passionate about education, intercultural exchange, and personal growth, the Jet Program is the perfect opportunity for you. Embark on this life-changing journey and become part of a global community dedicated to fostering understanding and making the world a better place.
